Connecting Colorado is a respected resource for job seekers and employers but even here scams may occasionally show up. As you do your job search, note that it is uncommon for legitimate companies to require you to make a payment or provide them with credit card or bank account information as a condition of being hired.

Your security is very important to us. If you suspect a job on Connecting Colorado may be a scam, contact your local Workforce Center so the job posting can be investigated.
